

2022 Next Generation Newsletter Editor

Editor Position Description

Yampa Valley Sustainability Council (YVSC) is looking for a high school or college student to compile, develop and edit content for our Next Generation Newsletter in 2022. YVSC's Next Generation Newsletter provides young adults with inspirational and educational stories, relevant resources, sustainability tips and ways to get involved as a leader of climate action in our community. The Next Generation newsletter is an important point of connection between students and the community and seeks to unite people through climate action. Through this newsletter, YVSC also provides educational support for students interested in sustainability, like information about scholarships and career and internship opportunities.

The Next Generation Newsletter Editor will be responsible for compiling and generating content for the monthly newsletter which is released on the second Monday of each month. They will work closely with YVSC's Communications and Program Manager, Kate Brocato, during the editing process. The Editor is invited to bring creativity and fresh ideas to the Newsletter to ensure that it is a trusted, valuable and inspiring resource for Routt and Moffat County young adults. The Editor can expect up to five hours of volunteer time each month. This is a great professional development opportunity that will connect the Editor with YVSC staff and our community.

Qualifications and Background

This volunteer position is open to anyone in high school or college with a strong interest in sustainability and climate issues. The position requires strong written and verbal communication skills and strong organizational skills.

Benefits

Though this position is an unpaid volunteer position, students will gain direct experience in the field of sustainability that will be applicable to their resumes and future endeavors.

Hot to Apply

To apply, submit a cover letter, resume, and an example of two content pieces that you would include in the Next Generation Newsletter if you were to be our Editor to kate@yvsc.org. Applications accepted through 1/31/22. Applications will be evaluated on a rolling basis so early applications are encouraged!
